

International Conference Migration and Identity in the European Union

Date: November 8th-9th, 2007

Location: Oradea, Romania

Organizer: Research Center on Identity and Migration Issues, Faculty of Political Science and Communication, University of Oradea, Romania, www.e-migration.ro

Official language: English

Extended deadline for abstract submission: October 1st, 2007

Content: The aim of this international conference is to bring together scholars/specialists involved on the research of migration and to consolidate the partnerships established with researchers from Romania and abroad and also to open future directions for cooperation and to identify new research opportunities.

This call is an invitation for papers related to the following topics:

1. Labor migration within the European Union- realities, policies, expectations
2. Migration and participation: civic attitudes, economical and socio-political rights of migrants
3. National Identity and European Identity

Proposal submission: Proposals (including a paper title and a 250-300 words abstract of the proposed paper) should be submitted by email as MS Word attachment to contact@e-migration.ro, before October 1st, 2007. The papers presented at the conference will be published in the Journal of Identity and Migration Studies (see www.jims.e-migration.ro).

Fees: There is no participation fee for the conference but the travel and accommodation costs are to be covered by the participants.